

Ban Sabai Sunset Beach Resort & Spa wins 2010 Traveler's Choice Awards

Ban Sabai Sunset Beach Resort & Spa received an award in 2010 Traveler's Choice Awards from Trip Advisor in the categories of "Best for Romance in Asia".

Trip Advisor announces winners of its 2010 Traveler's Choice awards, the eighth annual competition - the largest ever. Unlike any other hotel honors in the world, TripAdvisor Travelers' Choice winners are based on the millions of real and unbiased reviews and opinions from travelers on TripAdvisor.com.

"Inspired by millions of trusted traveler reviews and opinions on TripAdvisor.com, the Travelers' Choice awards once again highlight the finest hotels in the world," said Christine Petersen, chief marketing officer for TripAdvisor.

Ban Sabai is a luxury boutique resort and spa located on Taling Kgam Beach, Koh Samui. This part of the island is very different to other beaches such as Chaweng and still retains its pristine island charm. The long soft sandy beach, spectacular views of Koh Samui coast, nearby islands and sunsets make it an ideal spot for a relaxing beach holiday.

Ban Sabai's superbly appointed beachfront villas and sunset rooms sit amidst our private, tranquil spa and gardens where the only sound is the gentle rhythm of the sea. The resort offers 21 rooms and villas. Sunset Jacuzzi Rooms and Sunset Jacuzzi Deluxe Rooms offer a view of the stunning Samui Marine National Park and sunsets. Garden villas are around the swimming pool, featuring a refreshing plunge pool and a private Sala in which to just relax or be pampered with a luxurious spa program. Beachfront Pool Villas are right by the sand and sea. Beachfront Villas can be set up as 2 bedrooms or 1 bedroom and 1 living room. Your refreshing private pool and Sala overlooks the beach.
